We operate in over 50 countries, employ over 508,000 people, and are a recognised top 10 employer worldwide.

The Position

The primary purpose of this position is to work with our internal Diversity & Indigenous Engagement Unit staff and External stakeholders, Funding Bodies, HR and Recruitment teams to assist with the “on the ground” implementation and day to day co-ordination and monitoring of training and employment initiatives associated with targeted Diversity and Indigenous Projects.

Key duties

- Coordinate & deliver diversity projects across the business.
- Source, recruit & mentor indigenous and diversity employees.
- Document and report on program activities and services
- Engage with internal & external stakeholders to promote and improve EEO initiatives

The Person

- Passionate about Diversity & Indigenous engagement.
- Outstanding communication and influencing skills.
- Understanding of governance requirements and procedures related to funded program delivery.
- Ability to manage and oversee multiple projects concurrently
- A flexible approach and attitude
- Experience in a similar role
- Able to work efficiently under pressure

The Benefits

We place great importance on being an employer of choice and offer excellent career opportunities including internal transfers; ongoing training and development including apprenticeships & traineeships; a competitive salary, recognition programs including awards, long service and team event days; site based benefits; and company discounts.

So, if you are a 'can-do' person, who thrives on new challenges; likes working in a team within a diverse environment; and consistently delivers to the highest quality, then you'll fit right in and we'd like to have you on our team.
